

THE NEW WEEKEND MASS SCHEDULE begins next weekend July 1. For some it will not mean much of a change, but for others it will mean going to a different time or location. Change is not always easy, but it is a reminder that Christ is the only unchanging constant so may our focus remain on Him who is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Weekend Mass	Saturday	Sunday

St. John Nep.-Howells		10:30am

THE NEW WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE will begin July 1. Fr Walter will be the primary priest offering the weekday Masses for the Hwy 91 parishes. His day off will be Friday, therefore, the 8:15am Mass on Friday at St Peter and Paul will move to Monday. Moreover, since Sacred Heart will no longer have a weekend Mass and in order to reserve the Eucharist in the church, Canon Law (934.2) states that "in so far as possible, a priest is to celebrate Mass there at least twice a month." Therefore, St John Nepumecene and Sacred Heart will rotate Masses on Thursdays. Although we are not allowed by archdiocesan parameters to rotate Mass on weekends, it is in my understanding allowed for weekdays. Yes, I realize this means that St Peter and Paul has two Masses during the week and St John Nepomecene will not only lose a weekday Mass, but also rotate a Mass on Thursdays. The reason for this is not only to be in accord with canon law stated above, but also so that the school can continue to attend two Masses during the week.

While I realize that one may not be able to go to Mass at his/her desired location, one must remember that the reason one goes to Mass is to worship God and receive the Eucharist. Just as most people would like every sporting event to be a home game, they travel to the away games. Hence, I hope you will make the sacrifice to go to Mass at the away churches.
